Section 302(e) of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974, as amended, provides that at any time after a committee reports its allocations such committee may report to its House an alteration of such allocations. This report is submitted pursuant to section 302(e).

On October 17, 2001, the Committee on the Budget filed a revised allocation (Congressional Record page S10789) reflecting an increase of $400,000,000 in budget authority and $289,000,000 in outlays for emergency requirements.

On October 30, 2001, the Committee on the Budget filed a revised 302(a) allocation for the Committee reflecting an increase of $453,000,000 in budget authority and $384,000,000 in outlays (Congressional Record pages S11191-11192). These amounts were provided under the provisions of section 314(b) of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974, as amended, which mandate an increase to the Committee's 302(a) allocation when certain conditions relating to funding of continuing disability reviews and adoption incentive activities are met.

On November 7, 2001, the Committee on the Budget filed a revised allocation (Congressional Record pages S11546–11547) reflecting an increase of $1,500,000,000 in budget authority for emergency requirements.

On December 20, 2001, the Committee on the Budget filed a revised allocation (Congressional Record page S13920) reflecting an increase of $300,000,000 in budget authority and $13,472,000,000 in outlays for emergency requirements.

On February 13, 2002, the Committee on the Budget filed a revised allocation (Congressional Record page S653) reflecting an increase of $20,000,000,000 in budget authority and $8,223,000,000 in outlays for emergency requirements. In addition, the allocation was revised to reflect division C of Public Law 107–117, the Department of Defense and Emergency Supplemental Appropriations for Recovery from and Response to Terrorist Attacks on the United States Act, 2002 which increased, consistent with the Bipartisan Agreement, the statutory limits on discretionary spending for fiscal year 2002.
